

MATH 341, Fall 2023, QUIZ 1 ANSWERS

2. Reading the textbook for this class is a Not very important     b More fun than you can imagine     c A crucial part of your learning.
3. The best way to contact Dr. Reading is to a Text him on his office phone     b Email him     c Wander campus calling "Dr. Reading?".
4. You should check your email
 a Every few minutes during class     b At least every day c Once at the end of the semester to make sure you didn't miss anything.
5. If you are sick you should a Be generous! Come to class and share     b Stay home and log into the emergency Zoom meeting
 c Stay home and watch the class webcast (if well enough) or the recording (when well enough).
6. If you have an excused absence on a test or quiz day, you should a Contact Dr. Reading immediately or in advance     b Contact Dr. Reading within a week
 c Contact Dr. Reading sometime before the end of the semester d Contact Dr. Reading in Spring 2024 to ask about a grade change.
7. If Dr. Reading ever speaks unintelligibly or writes illegibly, you should a Keep quiet, because he's the professor     b Throw rotten tomatoes
 c Ask for clarification, even if you have to interrupt.
8. Getting confused in a math class a Is normal and leads to learning if you take steps to address your confusion b Is fun!     c Means there is something wrong with you.

TRUE or FALSE:

9. The lowest test score will be dropped.  FALSE
10. The final exam is December 7, 8:30-11:00 am in the usual room.  TRUE
11. This will be your favorite class.  TRUE
12. Whiteboard photos will be provided for you by the automated system.  FALSE
13. If Dr. Reading is sick but well enough to teach, the class will move to Zoom.  TRUE
14. Answers to quizzes and tests will be posted online.  TRUE
15. Answers to quizzes and tests will be posted online before the quizzes/tests.  FALSE
16. The topic for the weekly quiz is always the homework that is due on quiz day.  TRUE
17. Homework assignments are your guide to what you are expected to learn in the course.  TRUE
18. It's a bad idea to come to office hours.  FALSE
19. Calculators are allowed on quizzes and tests.  FALSE
20. This quiz has way too many questions.  TRUE